

Raquel Eatmon: Professional BIO

Raquel Eatmon is a business owner, author and a dynamic communications leader who understands the importance of taking risks. A former television news anchor/reporter for CBS11-Dallas, Raquel resigned to pursue entrepreneurship. Today, she is a restaurateur at a cozy fine-dining restaurant in the heart of downtown Cleveland. Raquel's principles in Generosity in Service have turned the business into a serious competitor with significant increase in sales, a committed team and a 4.8 Google review.

Raquel is the author of two books including, Beyond Enough: How to Lead With Your Whole Self. She is the founder of the Woman of Power Conference (WoPC) and writer behind the 10-year Be Inspired with Raquel Gannett newspaper column. Raquel lives in a small village in Ohio, she enjoys hiking, delightful teas, family time and bringing terrific food to the table. Raquel's favorite quote: "That's what makes death so hard- unsatisfied curiosity." Beryl Markham
